

In an effort to sway a close election, Pappas Telecasting Companies' has donated $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates.

The public interest is not served when one political party is given free airtime while the other party must pay for the same access.

Pappas is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Thank you.